Health Advantage Federal Credit Union Hosted Virtual 49th Annual Meeting

[Saginaw, MI - May 19, 2020] Health Advantage Federal Credit Union held its 49th Annual Meeting virtually via webinar on April 22, 2020, attracting members and guests, who participated from the safety of their homes. With the coronavirus pandemic changing the way we all work and live, the transition to an all-virtual meeting was essential, and HACU was well prepared to make the move.

Health Advantage President/CEO, Laura Crase, reviewed highlights of the past year and assured members the credit union is well positioned financially to withstand the current economic downturn. "Health Advantage Credit Union has been proudly serving our members since 1970. We have weathered several difficult economic periods in the past 50 years and have emerged stronger and better prepared to meet future challenges. Our unwavering commitment is always to serve you to the best of our ability. Our seasoned staff is here to work with you to find solutions that fit your individual needs and help ease the financial burden you may be facing," said Crase.

"2019 was a banner year for our organization. We achieved some notable milestones in membership and asset size. We focused on providing a highly valued member experience, knowing that it starts with financial solutions to help improve members' lives by making banking convenient, accessible, and dependable. This year, we prioritized member experience, employee development and education, and we continued to enhance our technology infrastructure to ensure the safety and security of our credit union." Crase stated.

Crase announced the Nominating Committee nominated two directors for a three-year term each. Congratulations to Nicholas Hammis and Lee Morrill, both were nominated and elected to serve another three-year term.
