Saginaw Medical Federal Credit Union Awards Scholarships

[Saginaw, MI – May 15, 2018]

Saginaw Medical Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce the recipients of their 2017 Scholarship Awards; Randall Madison – Swan Valley High School, Murielle Garbariono – Grand Valley State University, Allison Hartwick – Michigan State University, and Nora Fettingner – Central Michigan University.

A special scholarship was established in memory of Missey Kelly, former President and CEO of SMFCU. The recipient of the Missey Kelly Memorial Scholarship was Colleen Miller – Heritage High School.

“I am continually impressed with number and caliber of scholarship applications we receive each year,” said Laura Crase, SMFCU CEO. “In particular, these five students displayed continual dedication to both their academics and their community, reflecting the values and expectations SMFCU has for its scholarship award recipients. We look forward to seeing the impact they will have on their future communities.”

Saginaw Medical awards scholarships annually in April. The scholarship program is open to any high school senior or full-time college student (12 credit hours), who is a member of SMFCU. To date, they have awarded over $24,000 to area students perusing higher education.
