Saginaw Medical Federal Credit Union Collects Hundreds of Books & Art Supplies for Covenant Kids

[Saginaw, MI – April 4, 2018] Saginaw Medical Federal Credit Union collected over 200 books and art supplies along with cash donations during the month of March for Covenant Kids in celebration of National Reading & Art Month.

“We were thrilled to participate in National Reading and Art Month,” said Laura Crase, President/CEO of SMFCU. “Donating our favorite books and art supplies is just a small way to impact ‘Covenant Kids’ and our community. We are so thankful for all of our members’ support.”

Covenant Kids is a fund managed by the Covenant HealthCare Foundation dedicated to enhancing the care for all Covenant Kids, which includes any Covenant patient under the age of 17 and their families.
