Saginaw Medical Federal Credit Union Donates Hundreds of Hats and Mittens for the Saginaw Salvation Army

[Saginaw, MI – January 31, 2018] Saginaw Medical Federal Credit Union donated almost 300 hats, mittens, socks, and scarves for the Saginaw Salvation Army. Winter items were donated by credit union members and employees through SMFCU’s Giving Tree campaign in December.

“The participation in this year’s Giving Tree campaign was overwhelming” said Laura Crase, President/CEO of SMFCU. “We are very proud of our members and our staff for helping give the gift of warmth this winter.”

The Salvation Army Saginaw Crops provide free support services to members of Saginaw County, including a food pantry, youth and adult enrichment, and sports/recreation and character building. The organization helps those who are in need by following their motto, ‘Doing the Most Good.’ The Salvation Army Saginaw is located at 2030 North Carolina Street in Saginaw and can be reached online at saginawsalvationarmy.org.
